Sylvia Brazel was a contract killer who wanted to leave the game behind. She robbed, stole, and killed for a living and it was all good until she turned on the wrong person. They say never bite the hand that feeds you, but Sylvia didn't give a damn and wanted to make her own living without anyone dictating her life to her. After her grandmother died, she put her baby sister, Anna through college so she wouldn't have to work the streets like she did. Unfortunately, Anna got hooked up with a crooked cop from around the way whose only purpose was to make his family, The Desotos, rich. What Sylvia didn't know was that he was a pond in this game of chess and was used to bring her out of hiding. After she set up his dad, "Big Daddy," she went missing for three years, but the death of her baby sister brought out the rage, the love, and the survival tactics he'd taught her. Big Daddy's plan was to kill Sylvia right after she mourned her sister's death, but Sylvia had a plan of her own. Will Sylvia keep her promise to Anna to give up contract killing and settle down, or will this last kill be more personal than business?
