Take a chance. That's what Roxanne Keyes thinks when she recognizes the guy calmly driving away from the murder his passenger has just committed at an intersection in broad daylight. Roxanne can use this to her advantage. It will get her out of the huge mess she's made of her life—if she's willing to lie to the cops, partner with a porn-Web site developer with a mysterious past, and blackmail a Russian mobster. Can't be much more dangerous than her day job, selling real estate in Toronto.

Except that the cops—new guy Loewen and the maybe-too-cool-for-his-own-good Price—know right away that this isn't a random act of violence. There's something bigger going on—and they're going to get to the bottom of it. Even if it means going after mobsters, biker gangs, crooked cops, and Roxanne Keyes.
