What happens when a stranger takes everything from you in the blink of an eye? When your life goes from perfection to hell and you aren't sure if you want to climb out of the hole you're in or dig down deeper? Events from Traxx Maxwell's past prevent him from getting into serious relationships and he likes it that way. One unexpected day, hell breaks loose. "The Incident" happens. Traxx is forced to watch something that no one should ever see. He starts to fall into a person that no one recognizes. There is darkness moving within him - he is broken inside. While she's waiting for Traxx to quit his slutty ways and really notice her, Ciara Collins is dating other guys and having fun. One unexpected day "The Incident" takes over Traxx's life. While he tries to push everyone away, Ciara refuses to retreat. Can she help him put his fractured life back together or will he have to remain this shattered shell, completely dismantled? And just when life seems somewhat bearable, the creepers who have been quietly observing and enjoying Traxx's suffering, have decided to take everything away from him – once and for all. This is a story about how the unexpected can make someone's life fall into pieces, and how unconditional love and friendship can help those who are dismantled become whole again. *Standalone full length novel with adult situations and language.
