Poker players are very lucky - they can mix their hobby with travel. Yet there's never been a travel guide with the poker player's unique interests in mind, until now... The World Poker Travel Guide is the first of its kind: a comprehensive rundown of poker rooms around the world that will show you where, when, and what to expect when playing away from home. Our reviewers are poker players, not your average travel writer, who have personally visited and played in every poker room included here in order to deliver the information you need, including]: * Detailed descriptions of major poker rooms in the United States, Spain, England, France, Australia, and New Zealand * A chapter dedicated to the first-time visitor to a poker room * A comprehensive guide for the poker player's ultimate poker vacation - a trip to the WSOP * The best poker vacation spots in the world * A listing of the best and loosest games, by game type and limit * Tournament details and schedules as well as reward programs * The playing atmosphere at each venue * The best accommodations convenient to casinos and card rooms * The top three casino restaurants ...and much more! So before you book that flight, pack that bag, or place that bet, make sure you're traveling as smart as you're playing. With The World Poker Travel Guide, your trip will be a guaranteed winner!
