Are you considering walking the Camino de Santiago?

I walked El Camino Frances (the French Way and the most popular route of the Camino de Santiago) in September-October 2013 and documented the trip on my blog www.so-many-places.com. Afterwards, I asked my readers to send me their burning questions about the Camino. Their questions, and my answers, have formed this guide.

What this guide provides:

Answers to over 60 of the most frequently asked Camino de Santiago questions like:

Is the Camino well marked? Do I need a map or guide?

What is an albergue and what are they like?

How much money should I carry? Are ATMs widely available?

Will I be able to charge my camera battery along the trail?

A complete Camino de Santiago packing list

Recommendations for guide books and links to Camino de Santiago resources

Access to my inbox. If your question isn't answered in this FAQ email me and I'll answer within 5 business days.

Information on my Camino de Santiago trip planning services.

What this guide does not provide:

Maps, route information, and albergue reviews or recommendations.

This is not a guidebook!
