A River of Stories: It's Been Quite a Ride Jim H. Ainsworth

Seventy years of living inspired this wide-ranging and far-reaching collection of stories that shaped the author's life. Ainsworth's compelling narratives of encounters with legendary cowboys and roundups on historic Texas ranches complement stories of not-so-famous cowboys and his personal team roping sagas. Tales of true friendships (people and animals), blend with inspiring family experiences and adventures while checking off life's bucket list. Jim writes about books and reading, the art, craft, and creativity of writing, and the unusual authors, poets, singers, and songwriters he has met. Honored and privileged to write and present Life's Final Songs for friends and family, Ainsworth delves deeply into his own personal journey to belief and faith in Believing in a Grand Thing.
