Sometimes in the Game of Love, True Love is the Ultimate Score.

Bo

As the star and resident heart throb of a semi pro basketball team, I was always on the receiving end of plenty of female attention. Yet I always managed to hold onto my heart as surely as I did my ball. And then she came along; an ebony goddess who also happened to be a celebrated ballet dancer. OK, so she also happened to be a mighty tough cookie and the sister of one of my teammates; but Bo Jenkins gets what he wants. And what I want is....

Sherrie

As a nationally known ballet dancer who'd just gone through a rocky divorce, the last thing I wanted to do was end up in another high-profile romance; especially not with the star of my brother's semi pro basketball team. Sure Bo Jenkins is gorgeous and charming, but he's going to have to make some pretty smooth courtside moves to score a slam dunk with me.

Author's Note: PLAYING THE FIELD is a standalone, BWWM interracial romance with naughty moments and a happily ever after ending.
