Excerpt from The Mother Tongue, Vol. 1: Lessons in Speaking, Reading and Writing English

Book I of "The Mother Tongue" is designed to guide children to an intelligent appreciation and enjoyment of good English, to help them to speak and write correctly, and to introduce them to the study of grammar.

To appreciate the power and beauty of any language, a child must become familiar with well-written prose and verse in selections that shall be interesting from his own point of view as well as acceptable to the critical scholar. By familiar association with such writings, and wisely directed study of them, the child's taste is cultivated and a love of literature is fostered.

With this in view, the book provides selections from good authors, in prose and verse, together with full instructions for their use in different ways. Exercises for reading, study, discussion, and learning by heart accompany the selections. A similar study of the material contained in the pupils reading book will follow as a natural result, and thus these lessons form an introduction to the elementary study of literature. Two long selections ("The Amber Beads," and "Hiawatha's Sailing") have been introduced and made the basis of typical exercises, to indicate the manner in which such prose and verse may be used, and to afford opportunity for further practice, as the needs of particular classes may suggest.
