Robert Frost--Fire and Ice June August

The trials and triumphs of Robert Frost's life flow from narrative to poetry in this remarkable one-man performance by Arthur Peterson. The show celebrates the genius of Frost while tracing his life from his youth in San Francisco through his married life on a New England farm, to his early literary success in England and his later years as American's poet laureate. From Frost's homespun Yankee wit and wisdom, we gain personal insight into the poet's developing sensibility and the context of his major poems. The performance include "Mending Wall," "Birches," "The Road Not Taken," "Stopping by Woods on a Snowy Evening" and ten other poems. 1 cassette.
