Casa Desolada II (Spanish Edition) Charles Dickens

Esther Summerson, abandonada al nacer por sus padres, es la protegida de John Jarndyce, un poderoso gentleman de buen corazón que lleva años pleiteando a causa de una herencia. Esther vive en la residencia de Jarndyce, Casa Desolada, desde los dieciocho años, junto con Ada y Richard, primos adolescentes de John, huérfanos e indigentes a causa de la disputada herencia, a los que éste trata de orientar en la vida. La novela gira en torno a los avatares biográficos de Esther, cuyo relato en primera persona se intercala con el del narrador, siempre luchando por encontrar su identidad, superar su origen y triunfar socialmente.
