Directive 99 Judith Rolfs

A fast-moving suspense novel set in Wisconsin and Washington, D.C.

Jennifer Trevor, an ambitious career woman, holds enormous power. She's about to promote a secret government directive that will cause the death of millions. Her husband, Nick, a Christian lawyer, at odds with his wife's values, desperately attempts to stop the directive. Forced to run for his life, he battles sinister forces plotting to redesign society. His disappearance prods her to reconsider her choices.

Jennifer must decide between protecting her reputation and career or sacrificing everything she holds dear to prevent a grievous wrong.
