All this tragedy has shown me over and over again is that life is precious. You should go after the things you truly want and not let anything stop you. I am yours, I've been yours for longer than either of us have ever admitted.

Can love really triumph above all? Find out in Kate Squires's immensely enjoyable new novel, That Promise.

The highly anticipated sequel to That Kiss finds Chloe Shepherd, now a successful Broadway dancer, happily engaged to her longtime friend and lover, Matt Masen.

But the path to love is never easy, and Chloe and Matt soon find themselves fighting over everything from Matt's desire to move to Los Angeles in order to pursue his dream job, to a Russian male dancer's apparent obsession with Chloe.

Determined to save their relationship, the couple takes a trip to LA in an attempt to see if it's really a place they could call home. It's there that the fire between them is rekindled, and plans are soon underway to move the wedding forward.

Their troubles aren't over yet, however, as Matt's ex-girlfriend shows up with a bombshell secret—and Chloe's naiveté lures her into a life-threatening situation.
