When Gary, the studly man of the house tells Brock an unforgettable fantasy, Brock is shocked at the idea. He and Gary had been partners ever since he became a man and he would never imagine Gary bringing someone new in. Brock gives the idea some thought and decided that if it would make the man of the house happy, he was all for it.

Unsure of how to bring it up, Brock bites the bullet and tells Gary that he would like to give things a try. The only thing is, Gary has some rules for Brock to follow and he must abide by them. When everything is said and done, the ball is in Brock's court and he has to find a way to make it work. Will he be able to satisfy Gary's as well as his own while staying within the guidelines? He is willing to give it all he's got.
