La filosofía frente al comunismo: De Sartre a hoy (Mínima) (Spanish Edition) Alain Badiou

La filosofía frente al comunismo pone en escena la intensa labor intelectual que Alain Badiou, uno de los pensadores más destacados e influyentes de nuestra época, ha desplegado en los últimos años en torno a los problemas de la filosofía, el sujeto y la política. Entendiendo al comunismo como representación intelectual que provee una perspectiva crítica sobre las políticas existentes, el autor renueva la apuesta y explica por qué, pese a los abusos del “comunismo de Estado”, que deben repudiarse, sigue siendo necesario adoptar esta visión frente al recurrente contexto de las crisis sociales, en un arco que va del Manifiesto Comunista a la situación actual en Medio Oriente.

Si el capitalismo reduce a meras categorías de consumidor y de competidor económico la noción de sujeto, que es el principal impulsor de ideas y acontecimientos nuevos, ¿qué tiene la filosofía para decir al respecto? Atento a los cambios en las expresiones políticas, estéticas y mediáticas, Badiou propone releer en clave polémica a Sartre y Lacan, decisivos para su propia formación, pero también a Lévi-Strauss, Kierkegaard, Hegel, Marx y Platón. Así, este libro ágil y provocador pasa revista a los principales debates vigentes desde la segunda mitad del siglo XX, en lo que es una formidable actualización del pensamiento filosófico, y propone intensificar los nuevos núcleos de reflexión y emancipación hacia formas de organización alternativas a la “representación” opresiva.
