Mellie Corbin has been taking care of Hickory Pond Equestrian Center all by herself since her husband died the year before. Despite her strong and independent nature, the work is wearing her out, and she realizes its time to hire someone to help her run the ranch.

That's when Ransom Carrigan comes to town.

Ransom is a former Navy SEAL, injured in the war, just trying to make his way through life as a civilian. When he takes the job working on Hickory Pond, he finds himself immediately enchanted with his new boss.

But can Ransom break down the walls that Mellie has built up after the death of her husband? And will Mellie be able to convince her former father-in-law that it's time for all of them to embrace life and let go of their sadness?

In Ashley, North Dakota, the only thing bigger than the sky... are the possibilities for two people to fall in love.
