The fireplace isn't the only thing heating up this cabin.

Romance sucks. Especially when it kicks Nikki out of her own house so her roommate can get cozy with her boyfriend. At least the bribe is worth it—a weekend of blissful isolation in a mountain cabin.

It's not until she's wrapped in a full-body tackle that she realizes the cabin comes fully equipped with an uptight, incredibly sexy man.

Chase was looking forward to a quiet weekend alone in his cabin, but his brother had to go and lend the key to a woman with funky clothes and sassy attitude. Yet he can't just let her leave. Not at one in the morning with the mother of all snowstorms bearing down on them.

Also, Ms. Not-My-Type sends his blood racing to parts of his body he hasn't used since he broke up with his old girlfriend. A painfully long time ago...

Warning: Two strangers, a snowstorm, and one weekend together. Opposites attract in this stranded-in-a-cabin romance that has more than just the marshmallows melting!
