Attempting to recover from her rape and with her first semester of college vastly coming to an end, Alexa May is looking forward to a fresh start. One that doesn't involve Landon Crenshaw. With the verdict of Landon still weighing on her mind and him out of the picture she can breathe again. Or can she? Now she is determined to focus on her studies and get back on track. That is until a new guy catches her eye, the "bad boy" sophomore with his leather jacket, slicked back hair and a bike that would make any college girl want to go for a ride. Only Alexa can't tell if he's playing games or if he's more than a little interested. But has she seen the last of Landon? Throw in the fact that her best friend Katelyn's feelings for her are starting to intensify and Alexa has some very serious decisions to make between winter break and the beginning of the next semester. Who will Alexa choose and what really happened that night at the sorority party? Was Landon the only one involved?
