Walking on High Heels: What Do You Do When Life Takes You Down a Road You Never Expected?

Peggy Pedroza

WALKING on HIGH HEELS You can go through life so fast that you forget how important the simplest things in life can be. I know. I did it for years. Life will pass you by if you're not careful—taking the simple things for granted right along with it. But those things are sometimes the most important. Like rolling over in bed, walking across a room, drinking from a cup or holding a pen. Those things come as natural to us as breathing. That is, until they're gone. That's when you realize how precious life really is. In WALKING ON HIGH HEELS, Pedroza blends her life-threatening story and how the wisdom of the Bible brought her back from sudden tragedy to living beyond a devastating medical diagnosis. With her combination of humor, resolve and the persistence to overcome a life of paralysis, she opens up her life behind closed doors to give the reader insight on how acting on Biblical principles can and will bring you out of any situation to stand on His high hill. Learn How To: • Walk beyond your emotions when circumstances seem hopeless. • Walk away from devastating medical diagnoses and win big. • Walk over paralyzing fear to a road where faith brings victory.
