Separated spouses... will her secret and his smokejumping ruin their second chance for love?

Hero or husband? It's a tough choice, but somebody's got to make it.

Andy Jenkins is a hero. He's also a husband -- or at least he used to be. Now he regrets the breakup of his marriage every day. He loves his wife Amy and his sons, and he wants desperately to be with them, but he loves being a smokejumper too. He can't give it up to play it safe even to please his wife. Or can he? When Amy shows up to suggest a reunion for the sake of their sons, Andy is overjoyed and jumps back in with both feet.

Amy Jenkins has a secret: she's battling a life-threatening illness, and doesn't know if she'll survive. She's desperately worried that between her disease and Andy's high-risk job, their sons will end up as orphans. When they reunite can she convince him to put family first, or will the same arguments that led their marriage into trouble before put their relationship on the rocks again?

Andy finds that he loves Amy more than ever, and the sexual tension between them as they struggle between make-up or break-up is hotter than ever. Can he find a way to rescue their romance without giving up his calling to smokejump and save lives, or will their reconciliation lead to more regrets?
