The sequel to "Her Russian Mafia Boss." This book can be read as a stand-alone!

Tanya knew in her gut that something was wrong.

Her best friend and roommate Alana Jameson was missing. The police refuse to investigate because all evidence points to Alana leaving on her own, but Tanya knows that things don't add up. Alana would never have left like that unless she was in danger. The more Tanya digs, the more she realizes that her own life is in danger. And it doesn't get any more dangerous that Andrei Volkov, the stranger also looking for Alana and Vadim.

Andrei Volkov has been given his orders. Discover the whereabouts of his cousin Vadim, and bring him home at any cost. But the deeper the mystery, the more it becomes clear that Vadim left of his own freewill. Andrei's only real lead is the blonde beauty Tanya, whose roommate has also vanished. After kidnapping her in hopes of ransoming her, he quickly realizes why Vadim left. And as he begins to fall for Tanya, he sees why his cousin would choose a woman over the family business.

But Andrei isn't the only one looking for Vadim. And he isn't the only one ready to use Tanya to find him. For Tanya, the stakes have never been higher. She'll have to trust Andrei if she wants to live, but in doing so, she may just lose her heart..
