I thought losing my family was the linchpin to my suffering—the thing that would forever hold my head under the dark waters of regret. But I was wrong.

After seventeen years alone, I've found my place with the brothers of the Fallen Saints MC. But now even my solitary existence within their walls is threatened.

When one of our members crosses a notorious drug-lord, my estranged son is put at risk. As his father, I'll do everything I can to ensure his safety—even it means putting my chance at finding love again in jeopardy.

She's just like me, with a heart too scarred to take any more pain. So why are there sparks every time I'm near? What is it about her that captivates me so intensely?

When she needs me as much as my son, how will I decide with path to take? Will I make the right choice, or am I doomed to yet again lose the ones I love?
