Legend of the Holy Child of Atocha J. Janda

When the Moors invaded the town of Atocha in Spain, all the men were put in prison. The Moors would not give them anything to eat or drink. All the people prayed and finally the Holy Child Jesus went to the prison to help the men. He brought them bread to eat and water to drink. His Basket was never empty and his gourd never ran out of water until the men were released.

The story is read by the author.
