Bridge of Sighs Dallas Angguish

In a dark room in a Venice palazzo waits a pale dandy who might just know something of the secret to bridging the narrow chasm between reality and dream, desire and fear. Ben, a young American travelling the world seeking out eccentrics, may have found more than he bargained for when he set out to meet the strange Alistair Thrift. As soon as Ben enters that darkened room, he knows he won't come out unchanged. But he hadn't been thinking clearly when he'd agreed to the meeting. His mind was still reeling from a passionate encounter with a young man in an alley beside an ancient church. This short story by Dallas Angguish is 'deliciously atmospheric and intriguing'.
