18-year-old brat Annie is lucky. Bill, a billionaire who is a special man in her life and has always watched over her, purchased her a house right near campus so she can walk to all her college classes. But one night she returns home to find robbers have broken in, stolen her property and violated her sense of personal safety. And the only person that can make her feel safe again is Bill.

When he comes over to help relieve her fears and anxiety, a sleepless night finds them in bed together and their urges can no longer be denied...or controlled. Annie finally achieves a peaceful night's rest once Bill gives her a rather large and special gift that only he can deliver.

A story of forbidden love between a powerful older man and an innocent and inexperienced young woman. All characters are consenting adults over 18 and not blood related.
