A self-assessment test, multiple-choice questions with answers, and five model SAT II Writing tests are presented, along with a self-scoring guide to help students assess their essay-writing skill. Added features include reviews of basic English grammar, style, usage, and punctuation. An overview to help students improve their writing skills includes identification of sentence errors, including agreement of subject and verb, agreement of pronoun and antecedent, repairing sentence fragments and run-on sentences, and more. In addition there are special questions with answers that are geared to help students focus on sentence improvement and paragraph improvement and cope successfully with frequent problems that arise in English language style and expression.
