About the Dark Helen Rena

Fifteen-year-old Ever was kidnapped and imprisoned because some people thought her talents would be a great help in their future crimes. But Ever doesn't want to be a criminal. So she and three other teens in her cell train for hours on end to be the best fighters they can be in hopes of escaping some day. Only Ever isn't good at fighting: she's short and skinny and blind. The girl named Demi sees her as a burden that might sink their breakout attempt...and is determined to do something about it. Ever learns this when she and the three other teens decide to play a game--the three of them put on blindfolds and try to catch her. As the game unfolds, Ever realizes that Demi isn't playing to beat her. She's playing to kill her.
