Johann Sebastian Bach (1685–1750) was a master composer, known equally for his secular and sacred works for choir, orchestra, and solo instrument. Among his numerous famous compositions, the Brandenburg concertos, Goldberg Variations, and Cello Suites remain popular the world-over. This concise but thorough look at the life of one of the world's greatest Germanic composers covers his travels, his many musical achievements, his happy and musical family, and the key role that his Lutheran beliefs played in his works and life.
